

"The time of end"

Solomon said: Everything has its time; everything is vanity and affliction of the spirit. The word of God teaches us that all things on earth reaches an end. God allows us to act on what we know, and with that understanding, we do good or evil, and to His presence we go if we know Him and obey Him; to gain eternal life if we fear Him and keep His commandments. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. And this is the condemnation, that the light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil" (Jn. 3:16-19). God declares that: whomever knows to do the good and does not do it, is in sin.

How is the World? Distraught, seeking solutions with science but their projects, along with its science, fails. Because of it, today more than tomorrow, evil is seen: hunger, deaths, and corruption. For those who are who are receiving the word: "...In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (Jn.16:33). Glory to the Lord! Daniel says: "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt" (Dn.12:1-2). If we are God's children we are inscribe in the book, if we know and teach the justice. Peter says: "As it is written, There is none righteous, no not even one; there is no one who understand, there is no one who seeks God" (Ro.3:10-11).

If we believe in the word of God, our is the promise: "How happy those whose lawless acts are forgiven and whose sins are covered" (Ro.4:7). Because there exist, salvation if we listen, humble ourselves and repent of the evil we committed, let's read: "Therefore, since we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Ro.5:1). Therefore we rejoice in the hope of eternal life and in the tribulation that produces patience. Because if we love God, all things are for the good of our soul.

Thank you Lord for your life, for your Word, for which it gives us the faith that pleases you and overcomes the world, in where we are here to announce to those who don't know it, there is salvation, forgiveness and eternal life. Let's be remembered that before the end, in the church, love will grow cold and faith will scarce, the science will thrive, therefore the Lord says to His church, "... thou hast left thy first love" (Rev.2:4). Faith comes by listening; but the desires and the presence of evil, can separate us from the contact, communication with God. Also, we are told to scrutinize the scriptures and be patience, with eyes on the author and finisher of the faith, Jesus Christ. To remain in the church with faith, we need that spirited that Joel declared and it is confirmed in the book of Acts: "... on my male and female slaves in those days, and they will prophesy" (Ac. 2:18).

In church, not all love and serve. Got permits this relation between good and evil. In the parable of the tares Jesus declare to us "Let both grow together until the harvest (the good seed with the bad seed): and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn" (Mat 13:30).

Let's not forget what Jesus said to us: "learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart". This warns us that before the end, there will be false teachers and prophets who'll deceive, with outstanding groups, seeking not justice of God but justice of men. The apostle Peter exhorts us, for those who believe in God's peace and true justice, to be cautious awaiting for the Lord's coming, in which is near, "casting all your care upon Him, because He cares about you" (1 Pt.5:7).

Let's remember that the church, his wife, will be humiliated, awaiting like a small herd the promised kingdom, living in holiness: "...as you wait for and earnestly desire the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be on fire and be dissolved, and the elements will melt with the heat. But based on His promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness will dwell" (2Pt. 3:11-13).

Thank you Lord for coming, for your presence when we love You and serve You with love. Help us, we beg of You! Amen.
